All boarding charges to be paid before the animal leaves the premises. All rates are charged on a Day In and Day Out basis.

In the event of the owner failing to collect the animal within seven days after the expiry of the agreed return date, the management shall have the right to sell, or otherwise dispose of the animal, and the owner shall be liable for all boarding fees up to and including the day of disposal which remain outstanding after the proceeds of sale (if any) have been applied to discharge of such boarding fees.

No refund will be made if animal is collected from kennels before the return date. All animals boarded at owner's risk entirely.

Whilst boarded all animals are covered by pet insurance. Dogs will only be covered for Kennel Cough on Kennels Insurance if they have a current vaccination against the virus.

It is only upon the acceptance of the above terms that animals are received at Davanden Kennels.
